KEITH FISHER

Speedway Correspondent of The Sunday Mirror writes

SETTLE down now. Brace yourselves.

The preliminary sparring is all over. From here on it's the big action from the big names of British Speedway.

What better introduction is there to this SUNDAY MIRROR sponsored British semi-final of the world championship?

By tradition, semi-finals are the nights where the adrenalin runs just that little bit faster as the qualifying route heats up for this year's grand spectacular — the world individual championship in Gothenburg, Sweden.

Let's be honest. The majority of us here tonight thirst at the prospect of seeing an English rider heading for the No. 1 rostrum on September 5.

Honest, old-fashioned, good-natured partizanship never hurt anyone.

That's what makes a British semi-final so fascinating. It's a chance to cheer our own. To provide the sort of launching pad that may sweep someone all the way to gold and glory in Gothenburg.

At this early stage, it is, of course, foolhardy to predict just who will be carrying the banner for British Speedway.

The immediate target tonight is a place in the top eight who will form the field for the British Final.

It doesn't need me to remind you that Belle Vue's Peter Collins — British Champion in 1979 — was the last Englishman to win the world crown.

That broke the jinx of some 14 years after the late, great Peter Craven's success in 1962.

For presentation, quality and sheer competitiveness, British Speedway is acknowledged the world over. Yet, amazingly, we cannot provide sufficient winners on Speedway's big night.

Will our fortunes take a turn for the better this year? That question underlines, sweetly and succinctly, the significance of tonight's meeting.

The SUNDAY MIRROR is delighted to be here. We, too, will be cheering the lads all the way.

And nobody will shout louder if an Englishman gives us a night to remember in Gothenburg.

PROFILE: The Guests

REG WILSON

BOB KILBY

ALAN REGINALD MOLYNEUX — b.12.8.1950 — Derby. Plagued by injuries for the majority of 1979 but has bounced back for Coventry in 1980. Bidding for his second British Final appearance after qualifying through to the Commonwealth Final from Coventry with seven points. Started his speedway career with Long Eaton in 1973 and has since ridden for Stoke, Cradley Heath and present club Coventry.

REGINALD WILSON — b.28.1.1948 — Grenoside, near Sheffield, Yorkshire. Has made four British Final appearances: 1974 (4 points); 1976 (3 points); 1978 (6 points); 1979 (6 points). Has yet to qualify through to further rounds. Currently the number one at his British League club, Sheffield. Scored ten points (finishing sixth) at Wimborne Road in this same event last year.

ROBERT STANLEY KILBY — b.23.9.1944 — Swindon, Wiltshire. Recent winner of the Christer Sjosten Memorial Trophy at Wimborne Road. In his testimonial season at Blunsdon (his brochure of which is superb value for the price). First started riding at the Weymouth Training Ground in 1964, has had spells with Exeter and Oxford, but apart from these his only other club has been Swindon.

ROGER JOHNS — b.1.3.1954 — Epsom, Surrey. First started riding speedway in 1969 at a pre-season practice at Wimbledon. Joined National League Eastbourne in 1970, where he became an instant hit, and in 1974 moved up full-time with Wimbledon. Had to wait four years before moving up to heat leader calibre with the Dons. Had his best ever season for the Londoners last season. Qualified forward to the Commonwealth Final in 1979.

PAUL WOODS — b.17.1.1959 — Canterbury, Kent. Has made a tremendous start to the season in both leagues for Eastbourne and Crayford. Finished fourth in the World Championship Quarter Final at Halifax to be here tonight. Could be a shock merchant in this meeting.

PETER SPENCER COLLINS — b.24.3.1954 — Urmston, Manchester. Won the British Semi-Final at Leicester last year and went on to win the British Final and was runner-up in the Inter Continental Final. Making his third appearance at Poole this season. Aiming to qualify for his eighth British Final. Record: 1972 (3 points); 1973 (12 points); 1974 (8 points); 1975 (13 points); 1976 (12 points); 1978 (6 points); 1979 (15 points—1st).

ALAN WILLIAM GRAHAME — b.5.2.1954 — Birmingham. Signed for Cradley Heath at the beginning of last season from Birmingham. Only two previous British Final appearances; last year scoring three points, and in 1978 scoring four. Elder brother of Andy who rides at Birmingham.
